AQUA PHARMACEUTICALS WELCOMES DAVID CREAN AS VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT

WEST CHESTER, Pennsylvania – November 8, 2010 – West Chester-based Aqua Pharmaceuticals today announces the addition of David Crean as vice president, corporate development. In this role, Crean will be responsible for all of Aqua’s acquisition, licensing and corporate initiatives.

“David brings with him a level of experience and understanding that will be of great benefit to the senior management team,” said Jay Gooding, Aqua CEO. “His business development background along with his knowledge of dermatology within the pharmaceutical market make him ideal for this position. We are thrilled to have him on our team.”

Crean joins Aqua following a senior director for business development position with Allergan, Inc., where he worked primarily in new business generation and transaction execution in support of growing many of Allergan’s business units including topical facial aesthetics, therapeutic skin care and movement-related neurological disorders. Prior to his role in business development, David was the director of project and portfolio management, where he was responsible for leading critical drug development programs.

Crean holds a doctorate in biophysics from the State University of New York at Buffalo and a master’s degree in business administration with a finance concentration from Pepperdine University.
